Reveille Gets New Sound; Prof. of Month ASC Okays Fall Delivery Is Dr. Kuchar; Vote Wednesday

Changes concerning the Reveille were presented to All-Student Council Tuesday night by Candy Mitchell, the 1964-65 yearbook editor and Katherine Rogers, yearbook adviser.

Miss Mitchell asked that the Council back the yearbook in changing the pronunciation of Reveille to its regular form (to rhyme with heavily).

Other changes would move the printing date of the Reveille from spring to summer so that it would be ready for distribution in September. This would allow all spring events to be included thus covering the entire school year.

The Reveille Queen would also reign as Miss Fort Hays State and would be host to the Fort Hays Furlough and other spring events, as proposed by the yearbook representatives.

Candidates would have to meet scholastic qualifications and the queen would be chosen in a manner similar to the Miss Hays pageant.

With distribution of the Reveille in September, copies would be mailed to outgoing seniors, with the seniors and the yearbook splitting the cost of the mailing.

Mrs. Rogers said that a raise of fees would have to be approved by the Kansas State Board of Regents, but that a fee raise would not be asked at this time. She said that over 100 pages have been added to the yearbook without raising fees, but that the addition of those pages has cost over $3,000.

Jim Rock, ASC finance chairman, reported a balance of $860. Next year's Homecoming activities will be financed from this amount.

The following people were appointed to the Homecoming committee by Eldon Fleury, Council chairman: Judy Sipe, Denver, Colo. freshman; Bernadine Uhrich, Collyer sophomore; Jean Oborny, Timken sophomore; Dave Meckenstock, Hays freshman, and George Kay, Hays junior.

Rod Clausen, Kinsley junior, was elected to replace Jerry Sherrill, a graduating senior from Burrton, as the Council's representative to the Union Board.

Recognition Banquet Fetes Union Committees

The Memorial Union recognition banquet, sponsored by the Union Board, will feature Al Dunavan, associate professor of speech, at 6 this evening in the Union Black Room.

Dunavan's talk will be "The Union, the Next Five Years and You."

The Hi Plains Singers will present a program.

Student Art to Go on Sale

The "Village Sale," FHS's annual student art sale to be held Sunday and Monday, will have a French setting, complete with a sidewalk cafe.

The sale, which features work done in a variety of media by FHS art students, will be held each of the two days from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the Sunset Terrace of the Memorial Union.

All work to be included in the sale will be reviewed for quality and price by an art faculty member and an art major before put up for sale.

A ten per cent commission on each sale will be donated to the Arts and Exhibits Committee for a proposed permanent collection for the Memorial Union.

Cheerleaders Selected

Thumbs Down On 1st Election Bill

An amendment which would change procedures in electing representatives to All-Student Council was defeated, 361-132, by a student vote Wednesday in the Memorial Union lobby.

A nearly identical measure, which was proposed by Jim Rock, Abilene senior, will go before the student body next Wednesday. The primary difference in the two is that the referendum which will be voted on allows Greek pledges to represent residence halls and unmarried students living in unorganized housing.

Also voted on Wednesday were cheerleader candidates. Ima Jean Atwood, Hays junior, captured 384 votes to lead all candidates. Close behind was this year's head cheerleader, Carol Lipp, Burdett junior, with 369.

Rounding out the slate of seven cheerleaders are: Sherry Selby, Belleville sophomore, 292; Vi Vi Sterling, Greenwich, Conn., 222; Sandy Whitmore, Brookville junior, 219; Becky Bodenhamer, Wa-

Keeney sophomore, 212, and Gloria McFarland, Almena junior, 206.

Alternates are Bonnie Partin, Stafford sophomore, and Cindy Coen, St. John junior, with 164 and 161, respectively.

The amendment which was defeated was petitioned by Timken junior Jean Oborny. It stipulated that residence hall and unmarried, unorganized representatives cannot be married or be a member or pledge of a Greek group.

Rock's proposal would allow pledges to represent the above mentioned groups.

The primary function of both amendments is to outline which district a student is eligible to represent or vote in. Under the present student Constitution, it is possible for students to represent more than one living district.

FHS Hosts CIC Meet; See Pages Four, Eight

Fort Hays State is hosting the Central Intercollegiate Conference track meet this weekend. Stories on the meet also appear on pages four and eight in The Leader.

The meet opens with the preliminary field events at 6:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday's finals get under way at 12:30 p.m.

Activity tickets will admit students to the meet in Lewis Field Stadium, but complimentary tickets of K-cards will not be accepted. Admission of 50 cents for students and one dollar for adults will be charged the public at the gate.

Our Mistake . . .

There was a mistake in the April 23 edition of The Leader. We reported that parking permits are not required on campus from 1 p.m. Fridays until 8 p.m. Mondays. This should have been from 1 p.m. Fridays to 8 a.m. Mondays.

Should Notify Registrar

All students now enrolled who plan to attend summer school should notify the Registrar's Office so that a permit will be made for you.

'FH' Furlough Was Fun, Will Continue' -- Collier

Only bill-paying and money-counting is left to do on the 1964 Fort Hays Furlough, but plans are already under way for a repeat performance next year.

"Because of some unanticipated expenses, we do not know how much money the Furlough made and how many scholarships can be given," said Kent Collier, executive secretary of the Endowment Assn. "We are still tabulating receipts and debts."

Profits from the Furlough will be used for scholarships for working students.

"We realize that we made mistakes in this first attempt at the Furlough, but we feel that it was well received and a good show. We advertised it as being a weekend of fun, and that it was," said Collier.

The bicycle races, which produced six winning teams, few injuries and many tired students, was one of the highlights of the Furlough.

Outracing the rest of the women's teams were the following: WRA - Northwestern Typewriter Co., first place; Agnew Hall - J. C. Penney, second place; and Eta Rho Epsilon - Hays Daily News, third place.

Men's division winners were: McGrath Hall - Ben F. Dreiling, Inc., first place; Delta Sigma Phi, No. 1 - Coca-Cola Bottling Co., second place; and Tau Kappa Epsilon No. 1 - Hays Music Co., third place.

Dance contest winners were Elaine Watson, St. John sophomore, and Wayne Wild, Ellsworth freshman, best couple; and Nancy Jones, Johnson freshman, best individual.

People interested in working on next year's steering committee should contact Collier in the Endowment Office, Picken 202.

"The steering committee and I want to thank everyone who worked on the Furlough and all who participated in it," said Collier. "We are looking forward to next year's Furlough."

A film of the Furlough, made by KAYS-TV, will be shown at 12:30 p.m. Friday in the Memorial Union Gold Room. All interested people are invited to see this film.

DOUBLE MURDER — Lloyd Johnson, Kansas City (left), is choked to death by Pat McAtee, Ellsworth, as the latter dies of poison in the play "Aria da Capo," which will be presented Sunday in the Memorial Union. The students play shepherds in the play by Edna St. Vincent Millay, which is an indictment against war presented as a fantasy.

Theater Classes Will Present Three Plays Sunday in Union

Three one-act plays by contemporary playwrights will be presented at 8 p.m. Sunday in the Memorial Union Gold Room.

Under the direction of Harriet Ketchum, the directing class, make-up class, and stagecraft class will present the plays. Alpha Psi Omega is in charge of house management.

Last A & L Foreign Film Stars Director-Writer

The last movie of the foreign films series, "The Testament of Orpheus," will be shown at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Albertson Hall, Room 108.

This movie is written, directed and acted by Jean Cocteau. In 18th century clothing, Cocteau appears in the first sequence before a tribunal composed of two characters from his earlier film, "Orpheus." He is accused of "innocence, which makes men capable and culpable of all crimes" and he is sentenced to "life."

Elsewhere, Cocteau meets the Sphinx, Oedipus, a man soaring from the sea to a rock ledge and other mysteries. In the end, Cocteau "dies." His friends stare at him but Cocteau revived, floats up to the world again to continue his searches.

Spring Grad to Help Missions In Three-Year African Stint

From Oberlin High School to Liberia, West Africa, is the career route Avis Morton, who will graduate from FHS this spring, plans to follow.

By late August she hopes to be on her way to Africa and a three-year stint as a special term missionary for the Methodist Church.

"This is a special program for single college graduates," she says, "and has no obligation beyond three years."

Although Miss Morton does not know the exact location of her assignment nor the specific nature of her work, she believes she will be assigned to live and work at a Methodist mission.

"I believe this is a challenge to be a real witness as a Christian, an American and a home economist," says Miss Morton. "I'm looking forward to living in a country which is 99.2 per cent Negro and where descendants of American slaves are the elite of the country."

She is a home economics major and has been active in her home church in Oberlin, at Wesley Foundation and the Methodist Church in Hays. She is being sponsored by the Central Kansas Conference of the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Want to work for a great outfit?

Great, it is. And profitable to work for. And fun to work for. The outfit is Tupperware, makers of the famous plastic food containers of the same name. You could earn $50 a week or more as a part-time dealer, demonstrating and selling Tupperware at home parties. Truly, a wonderful way to beat the High Cost of Living-on-Campus. Ask your Financial Aid Director about it and call your local Tupperware distributor, listed in the Yellow Pages under Plastics or Housewares. Or send in this coupon...

See the CIC

It comes once during a college career and it's here Friday and Saturday. We're referring to the Central Intercollegiate Conference track meet, which is held on alternating years at Emporia, Pittsburg, Omaha, Washburn and FHS.

One of the most attractive meets in recent years, it boasts of such standouts as Emporia's John Camien and Omaha's Roger Sayers, both candidates for the 1964 Olympics in Tokyo.

In addition to NAIA mile champion Camien, Emporia will enter top-ranked NAIA two-miler Ireland Sloan and Irish steeplechase titlist John McDonnell. Terry Williams of Omaha is expected to provide Sayer's top competition in the 100-yard dash. Sayers is NAIA champion in the 100 and 220-yard dashes.

A top contender for FHS is Bob Schmidt, high jump winner at the Texas and Colorado relays and school record holder.

Miss Hays of 1964, Dottie Lay, will present the awards at the meet and local officials have made careful plans to keep those in attendance fully informed on all phases of the meet.

Fort Hays State draws sizable football crowds and enthusiastically packs Sheridan Coliseum during basketball. Here's the opportunity to support some of the least-recognized but hardest working Tiger athletes, and enjoy top-notch track competition at the same time.

Room to Improve

While the Fort Hays Furlough can boast of a fair degree of success, there are some things which need to be improved if it is to grow in popularity (and monetary worth) in the future.

1. There is a need for more precise and complete planning. This is exemplified by the fact that arrangements for lights for the dance were not made in time; an announcer for the football game was obtained after the contest was started; and there was disagreement among the judges after the bike race had started concerning such things as how change-offs must be made.

2. The co-ed bicycle race needs to be changed to a tricycle race. It proved to be too strenuous, and dangerous, for the women.

3. At least three men's bike teams kept a tally of their laps and came up with more than the official judges. We realize the judges were working under pressure, but these reports indicate costly mistakes may have been made. Stricter safety measures, such as requiring participants to wear helmets, should also be taken.

4. While the Furlough provided a weekend of fun, it was not a joining of area residents and students. The excellent financial support from Hays businessmen cannot be denied, but it is evident that actual participation came almost totally from the students. Perhaps some attractions are needed which have more appeal to alumni and Hays residents.

Almquist Eyes Retirement After Teaching 50 Years

Edward C. Almquist, assistant professor of physical science, will be honored at a dinner tonight in the Memorial Union. Almquist is retiring after 50 years of teaching—the last 17 as a member of the FHS faculty.

Almquist has taught at the elementary, secondary and college levels, at times as a principal, coach and music director. The versatile professor has instructed classes in photography, physical science and audio-visual techniques.

He received his bachelor's degree from Bethany in 1927 and in 1954 he received his master of science degree in audio-visual education from Indiana University.

In 1947 Almquist came to FHS as an instructor of photography and physical science. He developed the college's first audio-visual instruction program.

Although teaching has been his primary interest, the versatile professor also has participated in several geo-physical surveys—the most notable of which occurred in 1930 when he staked the location for the No. 1 Isern wildcat oil well which opened the present Silica field, one of the large producers between Ellinwood and Chase.

"That was the most lucrative job I've ever had," Almquist said. "But, though I've had several opportunities to enter higher paying fields, I wouldn't trade any of them for teaching."

About his retirement plans he concluded, "I'd like to do research in photography and some more geo-physical surveys, but I may just relax and enjoy myself."

Brewings

(Editor's Note — This week's Brewings is written by Jerry Demel, Leader editorial assistant, who is giving the original creator and flounderer a week off.)

—A Memorial Union spokesman said he was taking the attitude of a dying swan when first queried about the cigarette sales ban. Does a dying swan really sell candy, gum and peanuts?

—Cigarette companies are formulating resolutions stating that girls in cigarette advertising must be over 25 and look it. They don't stipulate, however, that the models can't show their tattoos.

—Barry Goldwater reportedly says his measure of defense would be "Have the wagons form a circle" (from the Jack Paar Show).

—John Glenn loses his balance. Some people suspected as much when he announced entering politics.

—A reporter at a presidential news conference asked President Johnson if the Bobby Baker investigation would continue. Said Johnson, "Let me show you the rose garden."

—Eighty mile-an-hour winds blew trash all over campus April 27. It looked about the same as 5,000 high school kids left it two days before.

—When Liz Taylor and Richard Burton are through with their $50 million love suit observers may see a new rise in the high cost of loving.

—The only way young people will take liver anymore is if it's a group of singers from Liverpool—this deduced from the Ed Sullivan scream show.

—Jockey Willie Shoemaker chose the wrong horse in the Kentucky Derby. He probably wasn't alone.

—Anyone who missed the grand opening of the Bootlegger may not get a second chance.

—The Furlough bicycle races may have been a little hazardous, but at least there weren't any plate glass windows to fly through. In order to insure success next year, Furlough coordinators may want to open a tavern.

—While on the topic of success, I wonder how many successes it will take to return the initial investment.

Chariot Races to Be Sunday; Summer Pledging Discussed

Plans for the chariot race and summer pledging were discussed during the Interfraternity Council meeting Monday.

Sunday was the day selected for the race to be held at Lewis Field track at 2 p.m. Sigma Phi Epsilon will be in charge of preparing the track and obtaining necessary equipment; Sigma Tau Gamma will be in charge of trophies, and Tau Kappa Epsilon will secure the track.

A summer rush program will be presented at the next meeting, according to Mike Watson, committee chairman.

Interfraternity Council recently discussed the possibility of summer pledging.

Under the present system, summer pledging is forbidden by IFC and no pledging may take place until after formal rush week. If summer pledging was accepted, rushing would be conducted during the week before the fall semester begins.

Two advantages for summer pledging brought out in IFC are that it would help fill fraternity houses and increase membership.

In order for summer pledging to be accepted here, the by-laws of IFC would have to be amended and a procedure for August rush formulated.

IFC vice-president Larry Jones said that the summer pledging committee has sent letters to other campuses in order to gain more insight into the issue.

Golfers End Regular Season Friday, Prep for Conference

The FHS golf squad ends its regular season at home in a triangular meet with Kearney State and Emporia State Friday, before entering the Central Intercollegiate Conference meet Monday and Tuesday at Omaha.

The three-way meet will be at 1 p.m. at the Fort Hays Country Club.

Dr. Joel Moss will enter R. J. Smiley, Hays junior; Bud Carlisle, Russell junior; Bud Frieden, Hardtner sophomore, and Jon Ficken, La Crosse sophomore, Friday afternoon. The fifth position will be determined by a playoff among Joel Moss, Hays senior; Rod Pekarek, Elkhart junior; Bill Getty, Downs senior, and Ralph Dinkel, Hays junior.

The Tigers were previously defeated by the Emporia Hornets in their season debut, 10½-4½. FHS's linksmen dumped Kearney, 12½-8½, in an earlier meet.

"Washburn University is the favorite in the upcoming CIC meet, with FHS, Emporia and Omaha battling for runnerup honors unless there is an upset for first place," Dr. Moss said. "Emporia defeated WU in a meet this season for Washburn's first conference loss in the last two years."

In the championship match last season, the Bengals tied for second place with St. Benedict's.

The Tiger linksmen defeated Baker University, 311-315, and Kansas Wesleyan, 311-338, in a triangular scoring at Salina April 30.

But in dual competition, the Bengals were edged by Baker, 8½-

6½, while defeating Wesleyan 11½-3½.

Tiger dual results:

FHS vs. Wesleyan:
Smiley (76), H. def. Christiansen (78), 2-1.
Carlisle (78), H. def. Gardner (88), 3-0.
Frieden (78), H. def. Weiss (88), 3-0.
Ficken (79), H. def. Koepke (88), 3-0.
Wall (84), W. def. Dinkel (89), 2½-1½.

FHS vs. Baker:
O'Connor (75), B. def. Smiley (76), 3-0.
Carlisle (78), H. def. Beck (79), 3-0.
Frieden (78), H. split with Monte (80), 1½-1½.
Loidolt (85), B. def. Dinkel (89), 3-0.

Sixty Industrial Arts Club members attended the fifth annual overnight at Rooks County Lake last Saturday.

The students fished, went boating, swam, and played cards. Dr. Richard Cain accompanied the group.

Election of next year's officers will be May 14.

Hayden Leads Whites to Win

Freshman quarterback Leo Hayden, Goodland, led the Whites with three second-half touchdown maneuvers to a 25-13 come-from-behind victory over the Black and Gold in Fort Hays State's intrasquad football game Saturday.

Junior halfback Jack Johnson continued his dependable running for the Black and Gold. The "most valuable back" on last year's team, Johnson picked up 97 yards on 20 carries.

Scoring for the Black and Gold were fullback Tommy Stevens on a one-yard plunge with the extra point kicked by Allan Jeffus, and on a 25-yard scoring pass from Jeffus to Larry Thurlow.

Keying the Whites' scoring, Hayden scored on a six-yard keeper, veteran fullback Steve Worley got a six-pointer on a one-yard plunge, Hayden scored again with a one-yard plunge, and completed the scoring with an eight-yard sweep around right end.

Leading tackler was Dave Jones with 17.

Netmen Travel to Pitt For CIC Meet Friday

Fort Hays State's tennis team travels to Pittsburg Friday and Saturday for the CIC Tennis Championships.

Coach Malcolm Applegate will take a team of Pat McAtee, Rex Vonachen, Jim Wells, Jim Tieszen and Don Fry.

Emporia State is favored to win the team championship.

The Tigers got out of a three-year-old tennis rut Friday afternoon when the netmen edged Hutchinson Junior College, 5-4, at Hutchinson.

Winning their singles matches for the Bengals were Rex Vonachen, Pat McAtee and Buddy Campbell.

McAtee-Vonachen and Wells-Campbell won their doubles competition to give the Tigers the edge.

The victory gave the Bengals a season record of four victories and six losses. It was the first time in four seasons that the FHS net team hasn't charted a 3-7 mark.

Emporia State's tennis team won four of five singles and both doubles matches to register a 6-1 tennis victory over the Bengal netmen, April 29.

The Tigers' only victory of the afternoon came in the no. 4 singles match when freshman Tieszen gained a 6-1, 3-6, 6-0 decision over Emporia's Aultin Hamilton. Three other matches went three sets, but the Tigers were on the losing end.

Hornets Favored

CIC Track Stars To Compete Here

By Steve Larson
Emporia State's Hornets appear favorites to earn their sixth consecutive Central Intercollegiate Conference outdoor track and field championship Friday and Saturday at Lewis Field Stadium.

Pressing the Hornets will be Pittsburg State, primarily in the hurdle and relay events; Omaha University, in the sprints; host Fort Hays State, in the high jump and middle distance events; while Washburn University is again apparently destined for the cellar.

Several of the best college cindermen in the nation will be in action in the meet. The Omaha sprint team Terry Williams and Roger Sayers should dominate the dashes, while Emporia's standouts John Camien, John McDonnell and Ireland Sloan will probably take the top spots in the 880, mile run and two-mile.

Several CIC records will be at stake since existing marks in the 100, mile, two-mile, mile relay and javelin have already been bettered this season.

Sayers and Williams, who finished 1-2 in the 100 and 220 at last year's CIC outdoor championships and the CIC Indoor 60-yard dash, have run 9.5 in the century race this spring, and appear to be unchallenged for the first two places.

Sayers has taken first place in both events each of his three previous seasons, and as a senior can end a four-year domination of the sprints by winning both.

He is also defending NAIA champion in the 100 and 220.

Pittsburg's Dennis Tague has clocked the best time this season in the 440 with a 47.5 production. Gorilla quarter-milers Jerry Hudson, Dave Palmer and Bill Leaphart, as well as Fort Hays State's Jack Harms and Larry Pickering and Emporia freshman Burt Wolfson will challenge Tague's bid.

E-State sensation Camien, one of the nation's best milers, is a two-time CIC champion in that event and also the returning titleholder in the half-mile. The little New Yorker is also the NAIA mile champ from the past two seasons.

Irish import McDonnell, Hornet strider, has shown much promise with an outstanding 2:59.5 clocking for three-fourths of a mile in the distance medley relay at the Drake Relays.

Sloan has won the two-mile championship the past two seasons and ranks as one of the country's top long distance runners.

Challenging the Hornet runners in the 880 could be Wolfson and Harms. Omaha's Ken Gould should add sparkle to the mile with a strong bid against Camien. Tiger Don Lakin is the apparent challenger in the two-mile.

Pittsburg's hurdlers and relay teams have reported the fastest times this season in those events.

The Gorillas 440 relay team has turned in a 42.2 clocking, and Omaha's quartet has run 42.3.

In the mile relay, the Gorilla foursome of Tague, Hudson, Palmer and Leaphart has clocked a sharp 3:13.6.

In the high hurdles, FHS freshman Leon Schneider has turned in a 15.4 time, but Pitt's Tom Korn has returned to action after an injury and could be the man to beat.

In a new event, the intermediate hurdles, Pittsburg's Tague and Palmer have the best time with 38.3. Tiger Ron McKown has a 39.9.

Emporia State's depth in field events could be the deciding factor in the race for the CIC crown.

The defending Hornets have the top marks in the shotputs, discus, javelin and pole vault. The high jump is the only event in which E-State appears to be lacking a top prospect.

FHS's Bob Schmidt, Texas Relays and Colorado Relays high jump winner, is top contender for the event with a career best of 6-7. The CIC standing is 6-7½.

Washburn's Larry Irwin is defending champ in the broad jump and also has the best leap this year in the triple jump.

Hornet domination in the javelin will be led by Kent Hurn, Mike Pitko and Kenny Oard; all have thrown better than 220 feet.

Richard DiPaola leads the shotput contenders with a 51-6¾ mark, but will be pressed by teammate Earl Kjekstad, last year's winner, and Larry Flint, FHS freshman.

Emporia appears to have the two top discus men in champ Ken Hawkinson and football lineman Bill Eikerman. Bill Strait, FHS sophomore, could challenge.

The Hornets have three pole vaulters over 13 feet with C. R. Robe the best with a 14-1¾ leap. FHS freshman Bob Johnson and Jerry Maska both have also been over 13 feet.

Other leading field contenders include javelin throwers Harold Noll and Louis Kreiser, both from Washburn; high jumpers James Jappa, Pittsburg, and Rod Williams, FHS; discus throwers Clark Engle, FHS, and Jimmy Jones, Omaha; and triple jumpers Schmidt, FHS, and Korn, Pittsburg.
